Legislation:

There is very clear legislation requiring all businesses to undertake the control of substances hazardous to health, most notably the Control of Substances Hazardous to Health Regulations 2005.

This DVD looks at how to comply with this legislation and the duty of everybody in the workplace to comply and use safe handling processes.

Relating Products:

The COSHH Assessment Forms will report any hazardous substances on site and will help put measures in place for reviewing and recording the assessment. Further Assessment Forms can be bought for only £14.99.

The COSHH Booklets illustrate the safety precautions you must take to protect yourself and others against any COSHH hazards. Duties are identified which both the employer and the employee must comply with, including the safe use and the correct storage of potentially hazardous substances. Further Booklets can be bought starting from £29.50 for a pack of 20 booklets.
